BOARD OF TRADE

The annual meeting of the Blaimore Board of Trade will be held in the Dining Room of the Cosmopolitan Hotel on Tuesday evening next, June 28, at 8.30. Your attendance is requested.

AN OPERA TO BE PRODUCED IN BLAIRMORE

It is proposed to produce in Blaimore a comic opera in the fall, under the direction of Mr. H. Miller-Langdale, who has produced in the Old Country all the Gilbert and Sullivan operas. The opera selected is "H. M. E. Pinafore" which was produced by Mr. Langdale in Edmonton with great success.

With the talent available in this district, it is felt that a wonderful performance of this delightful opera will bring further honor to Blaimore and to the Crows' Nest Pass.

A meeting of all those interested from Blaimore and district will be held in the lounge of the Greenhill hotel on Thursday evening next, June 30th, at 8 o'clock.

BLAIRMORE PUBLIC LIBRARY

At a meeting of the Blaimore Public Library Board, held on June 18th, Rev. J. W. Smith offered his resignation as chairman of the Board. This was accepted with regret and Mr. Donald McPherson was elected chairman in his place.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

A local butcher, who carries an advertisement in The Blaimore Enterprise, a few days ago received an order from Washington, capital of the United States, for a "dollar special" in meats. The order was accompanied by the necessary funds, a one-dollar American bill. The customer said he had read the ad in The Enterprise.

ENTIRE PROGRAMME MUST BE "PASSED U"; NEW RULING

EDMONTON, Alta., June 20.—New regulations just gazetted by the provincial government under the Theatres Act, provide that all pictures other than feature or news pictures shown as part of a "Passed U" programme, shall also qualify and be understood as family pictures. Hereafter "Passed U" has applied to the feature picture only, but under the new regulations the comedies and shorts that may be shown along with such pictures are also to be included in the rating, thus making a consistent programme throughout. The effect is that the public will now know that a "U" feature picture will have only "U" short pictures accompanying it.

By order-in-council the fees for examination of films have been increased $1, and the board of censors has been given authority to control the silent advertising at theatres of coming events, for the censorship of which also a nominal fee is to be charged.

The twelve-year maturity loan of the city of Montreal, $5,415,000 at 6 per cent, has been oversubscribed.

UNIVERSAL PRESENTS "FRANKENSTEIN"

Strange indeed was the spell of "The Unholy Garden." Here from all over the world came adventurers who avowed on their fellowmen. And here, too, flocked those glamorous beauties to prey on the adventurers.

What a setting for Ronald Colman's new picture! And what a story—different, thrilling, bristling with action—by the authors of "Front Page." Samuel Goldwyn has again produced another excellent picture. Encouraged, no doubt, by the success of "Dracula," that spine-tingling sensation of last season, Universal has concocted another hair-raising epic, based on the Mary Wollstonecraft Shelley novel and the play by Peggy Webling. The press blurbs will inform you that this new thriller, known as "Frankenstein," holds much of the gruesome power of "The Fall of the House of Usher," and we assure you this is so. It is clouded with mist and the settings are bleak and somber to the extreme. Director James Whale made a careful study of his subject, and as a result his atmosphere is charged with electricity and shuddering suspense.

The Alberta Censor Board advises nervous and excitable people to avoid this picture, as it portrays a monster and certain scenes of horror.

See it at Cole's Theatre Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week.

LIQUOR SAMPLES REPORT FINISHED

EDMONTON, June 20.—Asked for a the Legislature on March 5, a return in the name of H. H. Dakin, Liberal member of the legislature for Beaver River has been completed and Premier J. E. Brownlee has notified Mr. Dakin to this effect.

The return, which asks for the names of those by whom free samples of liquor sent to the Alberta Liquor Control Board were received, is probably the most voluminous in the history of the legislature and occupied more time in completing.

There is a solid mass of documents 15 inches high to the return.

These documents are divided into two files. One file deals with wines and liquors received by the Board in the years 1928-1931, inclusive, and involved free to the Board by the manufacturers. On the outside of the file is a label which bears the information that the cost of the goods was not charged to the Board and that the goods were taken into stock and sold in the usual way.

The other file contains correspondence, ledger sheets, customs entries, invoices, receipts and other matters dealing with samples received by the Board in the years 1924-1931, inclusive.

The file will be available for inspection by Mr. Dakin and other members of the legislature.

The death occurred this morning of Mrs. Anton Shaffer, after a prolonged illness. Funeral arrangements are in charge of Crows' Nest Undertaking Parlor.

George E. Carter, assistant general passenger agent, Canadian Pacific Railway, at Calgary, is appointed general passenger agent eastern lines, effective July 1, according to an announcement made by R. G. McNeill, assistant passenger traffic manager. He succeeds the late George Walton, who died on the Empress of Australia at sea on May 18. The position of assistant general passenger agent now held by Mr. Carter will not be filled.

THE PEOPLE HAVE SPOKEN

The people of Newfoundland have spoken, and they have spoken in no uncertain terms. By an avalanche of votes never before recorded in this country the government of Sir Richard Squires has been swept out of office. Not only has his party been defeated, but the leader himself failed to secure his own election. The popular vote of the country against the Squires Government has been almost three to one. In 1928 Squires' party secured twenty-nine seats out of a possible forty. The total vote polled at that election numbered 106,854. Of this number, 58,750 were cast for Sir Richard Squires and his party. —Western Star, Newfoundland.

The Legislature: World comments "These are hard times for governments to appeal to the people at elections. The results in New South Wales and Newfoundland indicate the people think anything would be better than what they have. It does not auger well for Premier Bracken in Manitoba."

Not Much Difference

Vegetarians Healthy But Slow In Generating Body Heat

Experiment running over two years has been concluded at Kansas City where a professor has been observing 70 vegetarians and comparing them with meat eaters. He finds that the vegetarians do not generate body heat and energy as quickly as meat eaters, placing the difference at 10 per cent. The vegetarians, he said, do not appear to be more active or intelligent than any others, nor are they more apt to become sick. Apart from generation of heat he could see little difference in the two plans of diet.

New Discovery Valuable

Makes It Possible To Evaporate Platinum Like Water

Platinum is caused to evaporate like water by a discovery announced from the California Institute of Technology. This precious vapor, probably the world's highest-priced mist, condenses into unimaginably thin films upon a wide variety of materials. It coats them virtually imperceptibly. Smoother than dew it will cover fibres, converting them into plant, filmy threads that seem made of pure platinum.

New South Wales Bandits Out After Big Booty

These are days of mysterious accidents, peculiar robberies and dastardly crimes of all descriptions. But one could not help but smile at the news despatch from Sydney, N.S.W. These bandits stole a brick wall 30 feet long and six feet high. Others took 30 locomotives all excepting the frames, while still others carried off part of a church. This story is somewhat along the lines of some of the "rackets" in the United States where high-pressure thieves will back a moving-van up to a home or an apartment and if nobody stops them, take the entire furnishings in one trip.

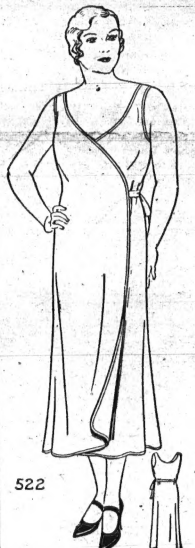

Keeping one's possessions is not as easy as it used to be, not even as easy as in the days when might meant right.

Leadership Of Prince

Heir To British Throne Is More Than Theoretician

Because of his commanding position as heir to the British Throne and on account of his personal popularity, the Prince of Wales has an unusual opportunity for public service of a practical nature, and of this opportunity he is taking full advantage. He is more than a theoretician, and whether his audience be composed of business men, industrialists or farmers, he speaks to them in their own language. They realize that he has made himself familiar with their problems. Leadership is the great need of the day, and this His Royal Highness is providing in an energetic and practical manner.

A BOON TO STOUT WOMEN—THE ADJUSTABLE SLIP

Its wrap-over front makes it shadow proof.

There isn't anything more essential for a slender appearance than a well-fitting costume slip.

Today's model reduces the breadth of the figure and does it gracefully. There is a narrow waist that slips through a bound opening at the right hand side of the front. It is brought around the back and tied in a bow, adjusting the slip to suit its wearer.

The wrap-over fronts allow plenty of freedom for the hemline, and still retain the straightline of the slip.

And to make it! You'll be amazed at its simplicity. Cut it out and practically only edges to be bound, after the sides and shoulder seams are closed.

Style No. 522 is designed for sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48 and 50 inches bust. Size 38 requires 4 1/2 yards of 39-inch material.

Price of pattern 25 cents in stamps or coin (coin is preferred). Wrap coin carefully.

Contract Bridge

By Hamlin B. Hatch, Cavendish Club, Toronto

In my last article, I discussed the Official System of Contract Bridge from the standpoint of the fundamental differences between it and the Approach-Forcing System. Today's article has to do with the so-called One-Over-One variation of both these systems. The One-Over-One has been developed by Geo. Reth of the Knickerbocker Whist Club, New York. Many of the members of the club have assisted in bringing this system to its present state of excellence. The Four Horsemen of Bridge, i.e. Hal Sims, David Burnstine, Willard Karn, and Oswald Jacoby used this system and have won many national and sectional championships. Whether their winning has been due to the One-Over-One or to the fact that all four of these men are master players, is not certain. However, it is probable that the system has helped them materially in their successes.

The salient features of the One-Over-One are as follows:

1. The Opening Bid of One has practically the same minimum requirements as The Approach-Forcing System, with the exception that with strong, distributional hands, i.e. two suits, the bidding may be opened with less than two and one-half honours or tricks. An example of this opening would be the following: Spades-A J 9 8 7, Hearts-K Q X X X, Diamonds-X, Clubs-X X X.

2nd. Provided there is no intervening bid and the partner of the opening bidder responds with a bid of one, other than one no trump, this response is definitely forcing and demands that the original bidder keep the bidding open for at least one more round. The difference between the Approach-Forcing and the One-Over-One is, that any bid which is forcing in the Approach-Forcing System requires that the bidding be kept open until a game contract is arrived at while the One-Over-One force simply requires that the bidding be kept open for at least one more round. Example: If the opening bidder bids one diamond and second hand passes, then if the opening bidder's partner bids one heart, the original bidder must bid again. The advantages claimed for this system by its advocates, is, that the partners inform each other of their respective holdings at low bids, and, also, that this bidding conceals from the opponents both the strength and weakness of the bidding hands. Where the hands are strong there is always the chance that the opponents will make a defensive bid and find themselves caught between the upper and nether millstones with the result that they suffer a substantial penalty.

3. The opening bid of two in a suit is based on losing tricks and not on honor tricks. In other words a two bid is made on hands which definitely assure the partnership of game even if the partner of the two bidder has a complete "bust." The type of hands which lend themselves to this bid are usually powerful two-suiters or a very powerful one suiter. Example: Spades-A Q J X X X, Hearts-A K X X X X, Diamonds-X, Clubs-X. In this hand even with a six spot high in partners hand, game is assured, as the original bidder has only three losing tricks.

4. The opening bid of three in a suit is a definite slam signal. It is a stronger bid than the two bid and demands that the partner of the three bidder bid a suit of which he has the ace. If he has no ace, he makes the conventional response of three no trump.

Example: Spades-A K Q J X X, Hearts-K Q, Diamonds-X, Clubs-A K

Q X. If after a three spade bid the response for diamonds is made, this is definitely assured in spades. This is the only situation in any of the systems so far discussed where ace showing is contemplated.

4. In all other situations except those outlined above, the One-Over-One has no variations of consequence from the Approach-Forcing System. The weak no trump response is used to show a balanced one to two trick hand. All no trump bids other than jump no trump and original no trump are used to definitely measure your quick trick strength and in almost every case the no trump bid shows a minimum holding. However, in the One-Over-One, many users of the system make an opening bid of one no trump on a strong hand. If one no trump is bid and partner responds with two no trump the original bidder guarantees enough extra value to rebid to three. In other words the contract is either one no trump or three no trump. The hand, provided there is no adverse bid, is never played at two no trump. In suit bids if the opening bid is one heart and partner responds with two hearts the original bidder either passes or bids spades, hearts never three. As major suits therefore where no interference bidding occurs, the contract is either two or four. In the minors it is either two or five.

It is probable that the intelligent use of this system requires greater experience than the use of the other systems. It is certain, however, that in the acid test of keen duplicate competition, the users of this system have been extremely successful. Whether their winning is due to the system or to the fact that they are master players is, among users of other systems, a mooted question.

The next article will deal with variations and their variations.

FAVORITE CHARACTERS IN GENESIS

Golden Text: "We know that to them that love God all things work together for good, even to them that are called according to His purpose."—Romans 8:28.

Devotional Reading: Hebrews 11:4-22.

Lessons From the Life of Abraham. The importance of Abraham is evidenced not only by the number of chapters in Genesis devoted to his life but to the many references to him and his faith, both in the Old Testament and the New. Faith was the outstanding trait of Abraham. He was the first, as far as we know, to see life as a venture with a purpose. He knew God and communed with Him, and his beautiful life is "The Friend of God."

"Jehovah appeared to Abram, and said unto him, I am God Almighty." In the story of Abraham we see the belief in one God displace the universal belief of his time in many gods. In the words of Basil King: "To Abraham the new understanding came as a great marvel. With a God of his kind Abraham was as dear as his own good. Good for himself could only be good in proportion as they, far as they could, should share it. Because he obeyed the Voice, not only he but others were to benefit. That a single life could be so justifying, in which, to its degree, all the nations of the earth shall be blessed, was one of his great discoveries."

Life Has Been Exciting

Eighty-Five-Year-Old Englishman Cannot Complain Of Monotony

Sir Claude Champion De Crespigny, who has the distinction of having served both with the Royal Navy and the Army, entering the Royal Navy when only 13 years of age, has just celebrated his 85th birthday. Sir Claude is feeling much better this year than last. With Lady De Crespigny he has returned to England from a six-weeks' trip to the West Indies, and that has done them both a lot of good. He does not feel any ill-effects from the fourteen bones which he is said to have broken during his many years of sporting activities. He breaks two legs while ballooning, three ribs at steeplechasing, three fingers when boxing, another rib through a horse's kick, and was once nearly scalped by a favorite monkey. "One of my tightest corners has been just when I jumped into a river infested with sharks to save a man's life." Once, long ago, Sir Claude fought a waterman with bare fists for an hour and a half, and although two of his fingers were broken he did not stop until the police arrived. Claude has also fought a python, escaped from a tiger, flown the North Sea in a balloon, and climbed steeples. His house is full of trophies and medals which he has won.

Lack Representation

Federal Government Has Low Percentage Of Farmer Members

In the Senate of Canada there are 98 members, and of these but 11 are farmers. With 46 per cent. voting population the rural constituencies have but 12 per cent. representation in the Senate, and 15 per cent. in the House of Commons. So that the basic cause of the little attention paid to farmers' complaints and to agricultural interests lies in the lack of representation. A profession which represents the largest percentage of any profession within the country is not organized, and it is pitted against the most highly organized unions and professions of other kinds.

Reason Is Obvious

An eminent American lawyer went to London recently to study the British legal system. An equally eminent English lawyer undertook to show him round the Law Courts. They happened to pass by the Englishman explained all the fine points of the administration of British justice. The American said afterwards: "There is no doubt that your system is better than ours. But I cannot understand why. After all, in America we have got the very best judges that money can buy."

Claims Largest Dog

The Rev. J. Gard, Baptist minister at Bstock, Leicestershire, England, claims ownership of Britain's largest dog, an Irish wolfhound. Three feet high at the shoulders, and weighing 154 pounds, the dog is as large as a donkey.

NEURITIS HAS GONE!

Banished by Kruschen

"I had acute neuritis in the shoulder and left arm, due to exposure in bad weather," writes the Rev. H. H. B. T. "It was impossible to lift the arm to dress or to use it in any way, and, of course, the pain was dreadful. All external applications were useless. I got it completely normal again by keeping the parts affected warm and taking daily, early in the morning, Kruschen Salts in a tumbler of hot water. It took nearly a month, but every vestige of neuritis has gone."

Neuritis is typical of a dozen other complaints—some minor, some very serious which all result from impurities in the blood. And it is impure blood, circulating all over the system and setting up inflammation in the tissues, that causes those excruciating pains.

Kruschen Salts can be safely trusted to set the matter right. Because Kruschen contains just what your system needs to persuade your internal organs back into a healthy, normal condition.

Entirely New Reason For Atlantic Flight

Doctor Hopes To Obtain Valuable Information

An attempt to fly the Atlantic to gather medical information on the strain imposed on aviators during long-distance hops is to be undertaken shortly by a New York physician, a veteran commercial pilot and a pilot who holds a limited commercial flying license.

The three are planning to fly non-stop from New York to Rome in the plane which Clyde Pangborn and Hugh Herndon used in their flight around the world.

Dr. Leon P. Piccoli, of New York, founder of the Flying Nurses' Association, will be a passenger. William Uhlrich, of Mineola, L.I., will be chief pilot, and Miss Edna M. Newcomer, of Hempstead, L.I., will be co-pilot. Miss Newcomer plans to make a parachute jump over Florence, Italy.

Dr. Piccoli intends to place both Uhlrich and Miss Newcomer on a rigid diet before the flight. He hopes to obtain valuable information on stamina, fatigue, diet and sleep schedules.

The plane is being conditioned at Roosevelt Field.

In Search Of Treasure

British Adventurers Locate Sunk Spanish Galleon In Southern Seas

A band of British treasure hunters are seeking Spanish treasures, made contact, recently, with a galleon on the bed of Chaguanarum Bay, Trinidad, which, they hoped was crammed with gold ingots and precious jewels. The operations have been directed by a "divining spring" owned by Frank Cooper, one of the leaders of the group, who crossed the Atlantic recently in the "Vigilant," a tiny vessel, in the hope of making a great fortune.

It was reported that as the "Vigilant" was circling over the bay, the "divining spring," held in Cooper's clenched hands, leaped from his grasp.

Chaguanarum Bay has long been looked upon as a place where treasure might be found. It was there that the Spanish were defeated by the British in a decisive naval engagement near the end of the eighteenth century. The legend is that the Spanish fleet contained one vessel loaded to the rails with gold and gems.

Special Fellowship Awards Announced

TO AMALGAMATE MUNICIPALITIES INTO 40 DISTRICTS

EDMONTON, Alta., June 22.—Abolition of the present system of small municipal districts in the province, and the creation in its place of a system of "enlarged municipal areas," under which the 166 municipal districts now in operation, together with some 143 improvement districts now administered by the provincial government, would be amalgamated into some 40 "enlarged" areas, thereby eliminating a large part of the cost of government, both provincial and municipal, while increasing efficiency of administration is proposed in a plan announced this week by Premier J. E. Brownlee. A saving in municipal administrative costs alone of over a quarter million dollars or three-quarters of a mill on the total rural assessment in the province is estimated, while the saving in provincial administrative costs and in the costs of all public services will run into every large figure.

The proposal, which has already been before the provincial cabinet, and is now presented to the public by the Premier, is the result of two years of rather exhaustive study and survey of the province conducted by an official of the Department of Municipal Affairs. The plan is entirely different from any scheme of large municipal organizations in existence in Canada or the United States, and is simply the application of the principles of our present small municipal unit to the larger area and continues the existing idea of only one authority for municipal administrative and taxing purposes.

The plan as so far developed will, in accordance with a resolution of the last convention of the municipal districts association, be discussed further with the executive of that organization who have already been in consultation with the department officials in its preparation. It will then be submitted to the next convention of that association, after which it is hoped it will be ready for submission to the next session of the provincial legislature. As a basis for discussion only, a map has been prepared setting out a plan of consolidation which appears reasonable and equitable to the departmental officials, but this map will, of course, be subject to adjustment, both as to the number of large units and their boundaries, as a result of further discussion. The new districts would be set up in accordance with certain fundamental principles, more or less as follows:

Grouping of localities having a common interest, and being of the same general agricultural and geographical classification as far as possible.

Maintenance of the municipal boundaries along township and range lines, save where natural boundaries, such as rivers might more advantageously be used.

Existence of sufficient population and assessable property so that each unit could function economically.

Consideration of the accessibility of the administrative center.

Government of the units would be much the same as the government of the present municipal districts. There would be a council of six or eight elected from six or eight wards or electoral divisions established in the enlarged municipal area, with the possible chance of having the reeve or chairman of council elected at large, rather than by appointment from the membership of the council as at present.

Premier Brownlee, in discussing the new plan, points out that the development is a logical one, in view not only of the urgent necessity for reducing the general cost of government wherever justified, but also in view of the fact that with the vast improved facilities of transportation, and communication of the present day, enlarged areas are in reality more easily administered than were the smaller units under the conditions which existed when the present system was created.

One of the great benefits of the scheme would be the large economy in the cost of administration, both provincial and municipal, already referred to.

Other advantages of the plan would be:

A greater equalization of the tax burden.

A more uniform and more equitable assessment of the lands in the area, since the judgment of the assessors would be applied over a very much larger area.

More uniform school levies, and a saving in the administrative costs of education.

A more co-ordinated system of road-building, the enlargement of the municipal areas making it possible to bring the roads into alignment with those of other districts and with the general provincial highway plan.

The plan, if adopted, would present, also, the opportunity for a review of the whole field of taxation as between the municipalities and the government. The possibility is suggested that the provincial government would abandon the field of real property taxation, leaving that to the jurisdiction of municipal councils, urban as well as rural.

VESSEL STEAMS UP ST. LAWRENCE

BROCKVILLE, Ont., June 20.—For the first time in the history of Canada, a large upper lake passenger vessel steamed down the ancient St. Lawrence river, and amid the cheers of thousands, docked at Brockville during the week-end.

The steamer, the Noronic, brought representatives of the Detroit Board of Commerce, who sponsored the pioneer cruise, to meet Canadians in celebration of the historic event.

Up to last year Great Lakes traffic, eastward bound, could proceed no farther than Lake Erie, but the completion of the Welland Canal met that obstacle and the largest vessels were able to proceed to Kingston. Now the international prospect of deepening the river channel from Kingston to Brockville has been finished and the pioneer cruise was made without mishap. The waterway is navigable now from Duluth to Brockville.

The Majestic theatre at Lethbridge has been sold to Famous Players and associates.

Jack Sharkey won decision over Max Schmeling in a fifteen-round heavyweight championship bout.

Hillcrest and Coleman football teams played to a one-one draw at Hillcrest on Saturday evening in a league fixture.

Miss McDonald, principal of St. Hilda's school for girls, Calgary, will be the week-end guest of Mrs. A. R. Granger.

J. D. Baker, deputy minister and general manager of the Alberta Government Telephones, accompanied by A. M. Mitchell, general superintendent, of Edmonton, were in town on Thursday last on an inspection of the local exchange.

Rev. Peter Joseph Monahan, of St. Patrick's church, Fort William, has been appointed to succeed Rt. Rev. J. T. Kidd as bishop of the Roman Catholic diocese of Calgary. The new bishop was born in St. Lin, Quebec, fifty-two years ago; was educated at Rigault college and the Grand Seminary in Montreal and was ordained in that city in 1909.

RUSSIA AS AN EXAMPLE. MEAT $3.00 A POUND.

Riga, June 14.—Wild scenes marked the reopening of town markets in Russia today, where, after a six-year interval, the peasants were permitted to visit the cities to sell their foodstuffs.

The reopening in the white Russian and Ukrainian cities of Vitebsk, Minsk, Kharkov, Kiev, and other towns were followed by riots. City dwellers attacked the peasants, charging them with profiteering and asking exorbitant prices for scanty supplies of foodstuffs.

Police reserves were called out in a number of towns to protect the peasants, local authorities announcing that the markets would be kept open under heavy guard.

Extermination of private trade in Russia, which began before the inauguration of the first five-year plan, resulted in a slow development of famine conditions throughout the country. Dictator Stalin's recent decision to annul a long list of decrees, providing severe punishment for peasants privately selling food, was welcomed by the Soviet press as an important step to ease the shortage. The Pravda, Communist organ, reported no disorders at Leningrad because the collectivized farms sold their products below the price of the state stores, mentioning a quart of milk at 50 cents, a pound of veal at $1.25.

However, the supplies offered by the communes were quickly exhausted and the individual peasants boosted the prices to 75 cents a quart for milk and $3 a pound for meat.

The Krasnaja Gazeta complained that 70 per cent of the milk offered by the collectivized farms was sour before it reached the consumer, vegetables also were for sale, but butter, eggs and poultry were not obtainable at Leningrad.

In an effort to induce the peasants to bring larger quantities of food to the towns, the council of people's commissars passed a decree imposing moderate taxes on market sellers. Peasants selling produce from the wagon pay a daily tax of 50 cents, sellers with baskets, 10 cents; but peasants dealing in poultry, eggs, meat, milk and cheese are exempt because of the scarcity of these provisions.—Ex.

Are you among those who say: "I Never Read Advertisements?"

TO SAY "I never read advertisements" would be much like saying, "I never use soap," or "I never read newspapers," or "No one can teach me anything," or "I know everything."

Many good—but not very wise—persons seem to think that all advertisements are just the vainglorious bragging of those who publish them—designed to part fools and their money. The truth is that most advertisements are incentives to their readers to do or be or buy or use something for their immediate or prospective advantage. Advertisers, to be successful and to live long, have to offer something of value or of desire—something really wanted or needed by the public. Advertisers, to live long, must not cheat the expectations or confidence of those who buy what they offer or propose.

Here are some questions to be answered by those who say "I never read advertisements":

1. What alarm clock would you buy if you needed one?
2. What camera would you buy, for your own use, or to give to a son or daughter?
3. What motor car possesses your favor?
4. What face cream or shaving soap or cream, or tooth paste did you use today?
5. What laundry soap (or flakes) is in your kitchen right now?
6. Does the breakfast bacon which you like best have a brand name?
7. The watch on your wrist—what name does it bear?
8. Your shoes—who made them?
9. Your life insurance policy—what company issued it?
10. The finger ale which you serve to guests—what brand is it?
11. The tea which you buy regularly—what brand is it?
12. The soap and baked beans and the tomato catsup now on your pantry shelves—what brands are they?

You see, whether or not you consciously or habitually read advertisements, you buy, by preference, what advertisements have recommended to your confidence and what experience has proven to be satisfactory.

The things which we don't buy, and which have a sickish life, are those which are not advertised, and which try to ride into public favor on the backs of well-advertised products.

IT IS TO ONE'S DISCREDIT TO SAY, "I NEVER READ ADVERTISEMENTS."

Constipation had practically ruined me. I took every kind of laxative I ever heard of, but they only aggravated my trouble. The Imperial Economic Conference

The Imperial Economic Conference, shortly to be convened at Ottawa, is unquestionably one of the most important gatherings ever called in the history of the British Empire. In fact it may easily prove to be one of the most important in the economic history of the whole world, because, whatever decisions it may reach will affect not only the British Commonwealth of Nations, but all nations.

There will be assembled together all the leading governing statesmen of the Empire, supported by the strongest possible groups of financial, economic, commercial and other experts that the Old Country and each of the Dominions can gather together. For months past these statesmen and experts, assisted by small armies of lesser experts and advisers, have been compiling and studying trade and monetary statistics, weighing the effect of this and that, probing as never before into the productive capacities, primary and industrial, of their countries, the natural resources, the state of employment, the requirements of their respective populations, the probable and possible trend of future developments and the extent thereof, and the effect of existing policies and possible future policies upon all these matters which enter into national growth, prosperity and strength.

And the object of it all is to evolve, if possible, new policies acceptable to all parts of the Empire, and which will prove of mutual advantage to all, and having as their objective the encouragement and development of a larger volume of inter-Empire trade. This means that the possibilities and the requirements of each part of the Empire must be ascertained, must be appreciated by all the other parts, and the whole dovetailed together to the advantage not only of each component part, but of the whole.

It becomes, at once self-evident, therefore, that one of the major tasks confronting the Conference will be to find ways and means of removing existing barriers to the free exchange of commodities between one part of the Empire and other parts, to the mutual advantage of both, and without, in the process, working injury to any part. While the Old Country representatives, and the representatives of each of the Dominions must, of necessity, give particular heed to the interests of their respective nations, it is an essential to the success of the Conference that this be done in no narrow selfish spirit, but in such a way that while benefitting their own country they likewise confer benefits on the sister nations.

This does not mean that the spirit of approach to the intricate problems calling for solution should be one of making sacrifices; rather it should be in the direction of striving for mutual advantages. In fact the word "mutual advantage" should be entirely absent from the Conference, while the term "mutual advantage" should be very much to the fore. In a word, the dominating ideal should not be that expressed in such slogans as "Britain First," "Canada First," "Australia First," but, on the contrary, it should be an adaptation of the motto of the Third Musketeers, "All for One, and One for All."

Along with the removal of existing barriers, and a mutual understanding or agreement that no new barriers will be erected, there must naturally develop policies designed to make easier the flow of trade into and out of all parts of the Empire to all other parts. This may involve the ultimate creation of a new system or method of monetary exchange, even an Empire currency. It would seem to be essential that some system be developed whereby the currency of any one part of the Empire should always be on a par with the currency of all other parts; in a word, that the same monetary standard should apply at all times throughout the Empire, and that, for example, at no time should the Canadian dollar be at a discount with the British pound, or vice versa. The guarantee of such a standard would undoubtedly be of tremendous assistance in establishing and maintaining inter-Empire trade at a maximum, removing, as it would, much of the uncertainty and loss which now prevails.

If the forthcoming Conference can achieve a measure of success along these and other lines having the same general object in view the beneficial effect upon all parts of the British Empire will be almost incalculable. Not only so, but no other trading nations could afford to ignore such a development. The breaking down of trade barriers within the Empire would quickly force the breaking down of trade barriers by all other nations. It would be the beginning of a reversal of the suicidal policy into which the world has drifted and which has resulted in an almost complete paralysis, or destruction, of international trade and commerce, ending in the present state of world depression, unemployment, suffering and hardship.

Canadians may well be proud if, from their national capital, there is evolved a new economic policy for their Empire and the world. That this should emerge from the Conference should be, and we believe is, the fervent desire and hope of the Canadian people irrespective of any minor political differences of adherence to special schools of economic or fiscal thought.

Only Three In Existence

Silk-Cotton Tree Attraction For Tourists At Nassau

Among the many attractions for American tourists at Nassau, in the Bahama Islands, is the famous silk-cotton tree, which rises seemingly like a pyramid, then, at the top, branches off in clumpy shoots. The trunk of the tree flares out curiously into ribbon-like formation. There are believed to be only three silk-cotton trees in existence.

There are two kinds of people: Those who aren't hateful by nature, and those who aren't when somebody toots to pass.

The man who says the right thing at the right time is rare. But not half so rare as the man who says nothing at the right time.

Pains In Stomach and Bowels So Bad Would Have To Sit Down

Mrs. C. Landry, Moncton, N.B., writes: "I can certainly recommend Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for cramps or pains in the stomach and bowels."

"Last Summer I had such awful pains in my stomach, and lower part of my bowels, at times, I would have to sit down. I took Dr. Fowler's and was soon relieved."

"When my children were small I always kept a bottle in the house and it helped them wonderfully whenever any of them had bowel complaints."

Island Prison For Doukhobors

D'Arcy Island, Near Victoria, B.C. To Become Place Of Banishment D'Arcy Island, about 20 miles from Victoria in Haro Straits, will become the home of some 300 Doukhobors, sentenced to serve three years each for mutiny and rebellion.

Announcement of the creation of the island prison settlement was made by Oscar Bass, deputy attorney-general, on receipt of announcement from Ottawa of the decision. The Dominion government will almost immediately commence erection of such additional buildings and other accommodations as may be required.

The Doukhobors will be provided with agricultural implements so that they will be able to raise food-stuffs for their own maintenance.

D'Arcy Island was the site of a leper colony many years ago, but it has been closely inspected by medical officials, and has been given a clean bill of health.

It is understood that the Doukhobor women arrested, also numbering some 300, will be placed in a number of Dominion institutions in eastern Canada.

A total of 594 adults have been arrested. Three hundred and fifty-nine children will be cared for in various British Columbia institutions. Thus a total of 953 persons, men, women and children, are affected by the action of the Dominion and British Columbia governments in their efforts to establish peace in the portion of the interior of the province in which the Sons of Freedom sect of Doukhobors have lived. The countryside has been in a state of unrest for years, with nude parades, burning and bombings and consequent menace to life and property.

Remarkable Success Of English Surgeons

Girl Walks After Spine Built Up By Foot Bone

Operation—the first of its kind in England—a girl, for eight years was crippled, has returned home cured.

She is Miss Jessie Euton, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Euton of Duke Place, Woking. Up to the age of nine Miss Euton was a lively child, but her spine became affected by a tubercular disease, and for three years she was a patient at the Mansfield sanatorium.

She made progress, but a fall after she had returned home, aggravated the disease, and she was again unable to walk.

The case was brought to the notice of the Duchess of Portland, and Miss Euton was removed to the Duchess's Orthopedic Hospital at Harlow Wood, Nottinghamshire, where the operation was performed by Mr. Malkin, the senior surgeon, who used a piece of bone from the left foot to build up the spine.

Miss Euton is now able to walk normally except for long distances. She has since visited Harlow Wood to show the success of the operation to 80 doctors from all parts of Europe.

Col. Herbert Swinford, Veteran Of Red River Rebellion, Dies In Winnipeg

Col. Herbert Swinford, veteran of the Red River Rebellion of 1870, and the North West Rebellion 15 years later, died recently in Winnipeg at the age of 85.

Born at London, England, he came to Canada with his parents as a boy and jumped into uniform with the Wellington Rifles at Guelph, Ont., when Lord Wolseley was forming his expedition.

Following service, Col. Swinford operated steamboats on the Red and Assiniboine Rivers here. Later he was appointed general agent for the Northern Pacific Railway in Winnipeg. For several years he occupied the same position at Vancouver and returned to Winnipeg only six months ago.

No Fool-Proof Rule

Mushroom Hunter Must Depend On His Own Judgment

The public's desire for a fool-proof rule by which to distinguish edible mushrooms from a poisonous variety is doomed to unfulfillment. Dr. Fred Seaver, curator of the New York Botanical Gardens, said in a lecture at New York.

"There is no such rule," he stated. "One must learn to know the mushrooms and to distinguish them as you would your friends from your enemies."

Dr. Seaver said that to the mycologist, or student of fungi, there was no significance in terms "toadstool" and "mushroom."

"A mushroom is an edible toadstool or a toadstool is a poisonous mushroom, whichever way one may wish to put it."

An 86-year-old woman, who waited 65 years for her diploma, received it at Bates College commencement. The woman was Mrs. Sibyl Chase Ballard, of Minneapolis, Minn., who completed her course at Bates in 1867, but failed to receive her degree because the college did not then confer them on women. Bates now is a co-educational institution.

Earth Upheaval

Contour Of Island In Bering Sea Is Changed

An isolated Bering sea island, populated only by a herd of immense sea lions and great flocks of birds, Bogoslov, has given Father Bernard R. Hultine a good reason to be proud of how volcanic islands "grow."

A great steaming mound of lava, he said in a message sent to Seward, has been pushed out of the earth and has changed the contour of one section of the island completely. The mass is apparently increasing in size.

The "growth" is taking place, the Santa Clara University professor messaged, at a place where formerly a sheltered harbor existed.

His observations were made on a voyage from Bristol Bay with his party on the motorship "Polar Bear." Despite storms and high seas, a successful landing was made.

40th Anniversary Of Sa'ada Tea Company

Forty years ago this month in an unpretentious little building on Front Street in Toronto, the Sa'ada Tea Company packed its first pound of tea. Founded in 1892 by the late Honourable Peter Larkin, the business progressed very rapidly and by 1895 a branch had been opened in Montreal. Two years later the United States market was invaded and an office opened in Buffalo. To-day three of the largest and finest warehouses in the world, devoted exclusively to the packing of tea, stand as a memorial to the founder—in London in Toronto, Montreal, and in Boston in 1895. The memorable tea party which precipitated the Revolutionary War.

The Canadian market was then controlled by China and Japan tea—the largest sale being China tea of poor quality. These teas were being sent from chests, exposed to air, dust, dampness, foreign odours, and so forth, all detrimental to the quality of tea. In England, which was and still is the greatest tea-drinking country in the world, Ceylon and Indian tea of fine quality had practically displaced China tea, and it occurred to Larkin that Canadians also would prefer better tea.

He, consequently, introduced a Ceylon and Indian blend to this Continent. He then took the idea of packing it in metal packages, in order that it would reach the consumer in the best and quality unimpaired by dampness, foreign odours, etc. This step revolutionized the tea market on this Continent.

He sought a name for his product and decided on "SALADA," which was the name of an old Indian tea garden. All that was left now was to tell the public about it. He wisely decided that the quickest and cheapest way to do this was by means of the newspaper. The result was so gratifying that he continued to use the newspapers as his chief advertising policy from that day.

He strove always to give the public the finest quality tea he could at the price and then advertise it for all he was worth. His achievement is the largest selling package tea in North America.

A Prison De Luxe

New York Has Lost Word In Detention Houses

New York papers gave a lot of space the other day to the opening of a new prison. It was, in fact, a considerable social event, and one Gotham reporter wrote that "the list of guests would do credit to one of society's best publicized debauches." This, it appears, is a sort of prison de luxe. Erected on Manhattan's Welfare Island, it is to be a house of detention for women, and, judging from the description, it will never be much bothered by attempted escapes. Hot and cold water in every cell, shower baths, metal mirrors, a radio in every ward, the blessed peace sounds as palatial as one of Canada's new observation cars.

Reduced Freight Rates

Lower Rates For Livestock In Quantities Less Than Full Carload

Reduced freight rates for the movement of livestock in quantities less than full carloads are being established by the railways, according to an announcement made by the Canadian Freight Association. Hereafter a livestock shipper has been required to ship or pay for 20,000 lbs. in the case of cattle, and 10,000 lbs. in the case of hogs and sheep in order to ship under the carload rates.

The new schedule will provide for additional rates subject to minimum weights of 12,000 lbs. and 6,000 lbs. in the case of cattle, and 10,000 lbs. and 6,000 lbs. in the case of hogs and sheep. The rates for the smaller carloads are somewhat higher than for the full cars, but they will give the shipper, who has not sufficient stock available to make up full cars, an opportunity of getting the smaller quantities to the markets by rail.

The new rates will apply to market centres from points in the prairie provinces within a radius of 200 miles.

It will be permissible for cars to be stopped at one intermediate point in transit for completion of load at a charge of $3.00 per car. In making the announcement, the Canadian Freight Association stated that the new rates are in the nature of an experiment for one year.

Passengers Mostly Men

Family Trips To Europe Are Off For Present

When a liner from the United States docked at Liverpool the other day there were 1,068 passengers, and it was remarked by officers of the boat that nearly all were men. One of the male passengers offered an explanation, stating that most of the men were just taking a week of ten days in Europe for a little holiday, and some of them were looking after a little business at the same time. It had become necessary to leave the women at home and family trips to Europe were off for the present.

GOVERNMENT IS SUSTAINED IN MANITOBA VOTE

Winnipeg, Man.—Hon. John Bracken will be Prime Minister of Manitoba for another five years. The general election resulted in the return of government candidates on a sweeping scale.

The result of the voting puts the stamp of popular approval on the recent Liberal-Progressive coalition. Col. F. G. Taylor, Conservative leader, declined to join a coalition government when it was proposed by Premier Bracken last autumn. Col. Taylor stands elected in his own constituency of Portage la Prairie, as many of his followers went down to defeat.

Chief opposition to the government was provided by the Conservatives who contested practically every constituency in the province and waged a vigorous campaign.

With 13 candidates in the field, the Liberal Party lost only one seat. They fought in Winnipeg and a few other ridings. Early returns showed only one Labor man, John Queen of Winnipeg, elected.

One cabinet minister, Hon. Ewan McPherson, one of the new Liberal recruits to the cabinet, went down to defeat in Portage la Prairie before the popular Conservative leader, Col. Taylor.

Sanford Evans, chief financial critic of the Conservative opposition in the Manitoba legislature, was elected in election in Winnipeg as early returns showed him first in the lead of the other 28 candidates contesting the city's 10-member constituency.

Mr. Evans is one of the best known Conservatives in Manitoba and is known throughout Canada as an authority on grain trade and business statistics.

A. B. Roblin failed in his first attempt to follow his father, Sir Redmond Roblin in a political career. Sir Redmond was the last Conservative Prime Minister of Manitoba, but his son, running as a Conservative in Dufferin, was unable to capture the seat.

Burial Of Violet Sharpe

Brief Services Attended By The Acting British Consul-General

Englewood, N.J.—Violet Sharpe, English servant girl in the home of Mrs. Dwight W. Morrow, was buried after a brief service attended by 100 members of the Morrow household and the acting British consul-general who has been instructed to make a report on the girl's suicide five days ago.

The simple cloth-covered casket was borne to a grave in Brookside cemetery, where rests the body of the late Senator Dwight W. Morrow, grandfather of the murdered Lindbergh baby, on the shoulders of four male employees.

British Immigration

Question Has Not Yet Come Up For Discussion At Inter-Provincial Conference

Edmonton, Alberta.—Commenting on Senator A. D. McRae's suggestion as reported from Winnipeg, to the effect that the question of British immigration to western Canada be considered at the forthcoming inter-provincial conference in Regina, Premier J. E. Brownlee says that he has not had a communication from any source in regard to the matter, and he presumes that if the Dominion government were proposing to put it on the programme for the imperial economic conference advice to the provincial government would have been given accordingly.

If occasion arises, however, the Alberta Government will be prepared to express its views on such immigration, says Mr. Brownlee.

Bloodless Sea Fight

British Rum Runner and U.S. Cutter In Engagement

Halifax—Tales of an old-fashioned sea scrap, in which the crews of a British rum-runner and a United States cutter battled each other with potatoes, turnips, paint pots and molasses jugs about 70 miles off New York, were told here after the motorships "Gaucho" and "Mary F. Ruth" limped into harbour.

Masters of both vessels claimed they had been rammed by the cutter "Daphne," the "Mary F. Ruth" on Friday, and the "Gaucho" on Sunday. The "Gaucho" had a large hole in her stern.

Recognizing the inestimable benefits which will accrue to the nation from placing the ports of the Great Lakes on an ocean base, the party reaffirms allegiance to this great project and pledges its best efforts to secure its early completion."

Delegates From All Parts Of Canada Attending Convention At Detroit

Detroit.—Canadians from all parts of the Dominion arriving here for the 10th annual convention of Kiwanis International are prepared for four days of problems pertaining to unemployment aid, urban-rural relations, child welfare, adult education, and civic betterment.

Kiwanis was founded in Detroit on January 21, 1915, and the thousands of Kiwanians from all parts of Canada and the U.S., crowding into the city consider the occasion a pilgrimage back to the birthplace of the service organization. "We are justified in our faith in the future of Kiwanis," declared William O. Harris, of Los Angeles, International president, in his annual message. "We can be proud of our past accomplishments, and our present opportunity lies in the willingness to serve in the social and economic problems that we face today."

The Canadian delegations are in charge of three district governors: Charles A. Fowler, of Halifax, N.S., Ontario-Quebec-Maritime district; Dr. James P. Whyte, of Swift Current, Sask., Western Canada district; and Clinton S. Harley, of Seattle, Pacific Northwest district.

Two International officers, Andrew G. Gaul, of Hamilton, Ont., vice-president, and Dr. Charles C. Tatham, of Edmonton, trustee, will take leading parts in the convention.

Moore, Saskatoon, members of the committee.

Gold Rush In Manitoba

Big New Strike Is Reported Near Selkirk Lake

The Pas, Man.—Prospectors are flocking to the scene of what is believed a big new gold strike. The find is some 40 miles northwest of Island Lake, where important gold showings were made during winter. A rush of claim stakers from the Island Lake district followed news of the strike.

Details of the find have not come out, but it is stated samples taken to Island Lake have been found to contain a rich amount of gold. A few months ago.

FOREST FIRES CAUSE HEAVY LOSS IN ONTARIO

Port Arthur, Ont.—The number of men fighting fires in the Thunder Bay area has now reached 700, equal to the largest number employed last year.

Blazes at Whites Lake and Obong Lake are requiring extra care, officials said, and 50 additional men have been sent to Sunday Creek to cope with the rapid spread of fire in that district.

The largest fire in the area is about 30 miles north of Graham, but although it covers about 50 miles of territory, it is not the most destructive being mostly in young growth.

To fight fires at Whites Lake, Obong Lake, and at Gull River, all men and equipment must be taken in by plane.

Fires in the northwest of Dog Lake, about 20 miles from Port Arthur, destroyed a group of camps of the Pigeon Timber Company valued at $6,000. A dam which had cost $6,000 and about 10,000 feet of lumber also fell prey to the flames.

Joseph Marfield, 55, and Con MacManus, 22, two members of a fire-fighting brigade, lost their lives in Obong Lake when a canoe in which they were riding overturned.

Sunday, Ont.—Valuable timber is believed to be endangered by a bush fire which was ravaging some 3,000 acres of bush land near Gogama, north of here, according to word reaching Ontario forestry officials. The fire, being fought by 200 men, has been reported. Paul Natska was injured and badly burned when struck by a falling tree.

CONFERENCE AT OTTAWA MAY BE VERY BRIEF

London, England.—The British Government and the governments of the Dominions share the belief that proceedings of the Imperial Economic Conference at Ottawa must not be long drawn out, said J. H. Thomas, Secretary of State for the Dominions, in a statement on the conference in the House of Commons.

"No possible preparatory work has been left undone on this side," the minister said, and if the other had acted likewise the conference would not fail in its task of securing greater and freer trade.

Tariffs and Imperial preference, the nationalization of industries, monetary and financial questions including the whole question of currency and migration, would all be taken up by the conference, said the minister.

"The United Kingdom Government," he declared, "will advocate the establishment of machinery representing the dominions that will keep them in daily contact."

Reconciliation of the divergent interests of the different sections of the empire was a great and difficult task, but a worthy one, which the great mass of people were hoping would be accomplished, Mr. Thomas said. "If we can help each other," he added, "what an example that will be to the world."

Winnipeg Bank Robbery

Bandit Ties Up Staff and Escapes

Winnipeg, Man.—A lone robber entered the Corydon and Osborne branch of the Royal Bank of Canada here just before closing time Thursday afternoon, June 16, securely bound the staff and made a neat getaway with $5,000. The robbery was not discovered until one hour later. With the exception of the staff of four the bank was empty at the time.

Nonchalantly strolling up to the teller's window, he took a deposit, the armed bandit confronted Charles F. Mott, teller, with a revolver and ordered strict silence.

Stepping behind the counter he hustled the four employees to the rear of the premises, calmly but efficiently trussed them up with a coil of whipcord, scooped $5,000 from the teller's till and then telephoned for a taxi.

One hour later, a passerby noticing the bank doors still open, paused to investigate and found four members of the staff lying on the floor, securely tied.

Hoover Re-Nominated

Carries Republican National Convention In First Ballot

Chicago.—President Herbert Hoover was re-nominated almost without opposition by the Republican National Convention.

In a first ballot walkaway endorsement which rallied to his standard all but a handful of states, Hoover received from the party convocation a re-affirmation of the grant of leadership voted him four years ago at Kansas City.

A long, noisy and colorful demonstration had greeted the presentation of his name to the convention, with the state of California leading the parade.

The re-nomination had been forecast months ago, and it only remained for the assembled delegates to give to their ratification the stamp of unmistakable emphasis. They did with trimmings.

definite solution of the miners' troubles has been arrived at. The men at no interest in such affairs whatever.We regret, sincerely, that in our issue last week an item appeared announcing the death of Mrs. Powell, though she is yet in a very critical condition.We understand that Rev. John T.
